FOUND— Tuxedo Cat– Berme Rd, Kerhonkson, NY. A beautiful, loving affectionate tuxedo cat has been around my house for the past few days. I can't tell if it's male or female...but the cat is so loving. Came right over to me when I called it. Sits in my lap and purrs, climbs up to my shoulder and rubs its face against me. My neighbor has seen this cat before and tells me it plays with her young son. Black with white paws, throat etc...a typical tuxedo. If you think it might be yours, please call me. -Peter
