His home was in back of Cornucopia deli in Red Hook.
He was sick and taken to vet and getting nursed over weekend at Orlich Road.
He was due to go back to vet on Monday July 19. He ran away before I got him in car.
He was not familiar with the area he escaped from, as he was only inside while ill.

He is an out door cat accostomed to living in and around woods. He is afraid of people and will run.
