Ivy is our very beloved, small, ginger cat who slipped out of the house on Monday, July 17th. She is an indoor cat, so she is not wearing her collar. She is shy but very sweet. She has a meow that sounds more like chirping. Her eyes are almost the exact same color as her fur, and she has quite a long tail for her body size. She is over a year old but very small (maybe 5 lbs), as her pre-rescue life was quite harsh. Please help us to find her.
