LOST PET

Pearl from Germantown

Contact: littlemissbarlow@gmail.com

Location: Keep Conservation Preserve, County Route 8

Date : August 12, 2017

Bolted in Germantown at the Keep Conservation Reserve, County Route 8, Sat morning 12 Aug 2017.

She looks like a stick of butter with two raisins for eyes, has a white triangle on her head and lots of neck rolls. She has a small shaved patch on one of her back legs, an overbite and very few teeth. Has selective hearing, but loves humans and snacks. She loves to swim and might be in your pond.
