My littlest girl got away this morning. She's been gone for almost 2 hours. She is my pride and joy. I've had the worst year and now this is how I'm bringing in my new year. She is a blueish dachshund mini-pin mix. She was a stray so she is skiddish. Call her "PeePee" girl when you see her, she loves chicken, not many other treats. And she really has saved my life in more ways than one.

She is my life. Please help me find my dog. She is my child.
