Not my pet but I worry for this beautiful doggy! At 11pm on Sept 2nd I spotted a beautiful dog walking on the road which I am almost positive was a cocker spaniel. Location was at 28A and Spillway Road cross streets. At least 5 other cars spotted the dog. One car had hit the dog and it ran into the woods by Spillway. They said it had been hurt with minor injuries as it was able to run.

We searched and have been unable to locate. Did not see owners while looking. Photo is not actual but what I believe the dog looks like. Short hair and built were like in picture, coloring was a lighter tan. Unsure on gender too.
