One is a chocolate and the other a white Lab. Very friendly. Were lost on the morning of the 11th of April in the vicinity of I-84, Rt. 211 and off of Bart Bull Road, which is between Middletown and Montgomery, NY. Both have collars. They dug out under my fence and took off. We have been looking everywhere, asked all of the neighbors, but no one has seen them.

I do not have a specific photo of them.
