Dog found on Fishkill Road in Cold Spring, NY, this morning (Saturday 06/23/2108). We were able to leash and collar her and give her some dog food/treats. The pup is with my friend who is caring for her until her owner is found. She's a small dog, I'd guess about 35 lbs, well behaved, with a nice coat and short nails, so we're hoping she is someone's pet.

Please message me if you know how we can find her home.

PS: I’m going to get a spare leash and collar for the car, plus some treats.

Thanks everyone!
