This Kitty has been hanging out at my parents' house on Beatie Rd and Rt 207 in Rock Tavern, NY, for the last couple of days. The cat is mostly black with white paws. The left front paw has a a small black spot. The ridge of his nose, neck and chest are white. There's a tiny white spot under the right nostril. He has a blue collar with a bell, but no ID. I think it's a littler older in age.
