Found a small, male dog. About 15 lbs. He has a name tag with 3 phone numbers listed (keep getting voicemail when I call). His name is HENRY. Very sweet, playful and doesn't appear to be nervous or scared. He was walking in traffic on 44/45 in Modena, NY, by the courthouse. I picked him up and brought him home around 6:30 pm this evening. It was getting dark and he was running through traffic in the road. He's here at my home with another dog, food and water. Please call me with any info.
