Chopette from Malden

Contact: 845-798-5207

Location: Malden Rest Area

Date : May 8, 2019

Our black and white female (spayed) kitty was stowaway on a horse trailer on April 17 and jumped out a window along the route. We are desperately looking for her. Could be anywhere along the route. Pine Bush up Albany Post Rd to New Paltz, then onto Malden Rest Area. She is very friendly if she isn't too upset. Has 4-white legs, white nose with a black spot.
