I'm writing today in the hopes that someone may have recently seen or found our lost cat. Her name is Phoebe, and she is a shorthair tuxedo, with a white tummy, white feet, and a lopsided white flash on her face. She is about 7 years old and between 10-12 lbs. She is not microchipped, but may have been at one point still wearing her collar, which is pink with a circle tag.

Phoebe is an indoor cat, but she slipped outside on the evening of Friday,

June 24th in New Hamburg, NY, near the village of Wappingers Falls. She was last seen by our neighbors in the area on Wednesday, June 29. She is very friendly at home, but skittish of strangers and new situations.

Thank you very much!
