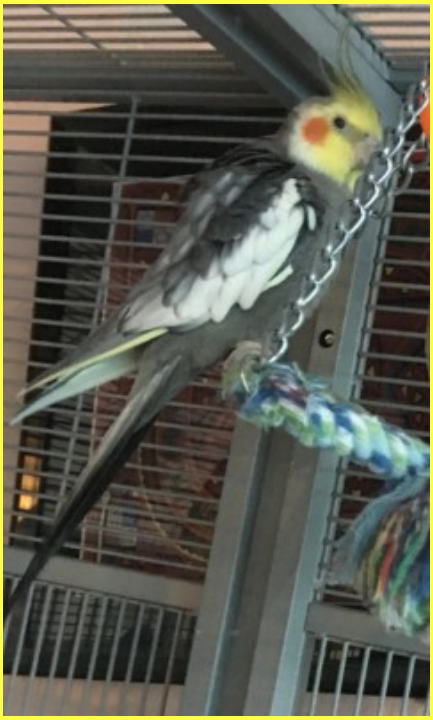
Location: Adams Point Beach at Queechy Lake

Date : October 14, 2019



I lost a cockatiel on August 18th in New Lebanon, NY, which is right on the NY/MA state line. He was last sighted at Adams Point Beach on Queechy Lake in Caanan, NY, on August 20th. He is an adult male cockatiel named Pearl. He has two small yellow/white spots on the back of his head and a few yellow feathers on his tail and wings. A few days ago, I had a dream that he was by a lake near a city and he flew right to me. My phone number is (518) 577-9168.
