This silly little trio (2 ducks 1 chicken) came knocking on my door at work (ImmuneSchein on route 212 Saugerties) asking for help. They are a tight little crew, and are very young, they stick together. We scooped them up and brought them home where they are safe for now. They are very people friendly, so we were wondering if they are someone's pets or possibly dumped? If they are someone's pets we would like to return them.
