Black and white pit Bull looking female dog found on Parker Avenue. Very sweet demeanor and listens well. She just seems scared. Saw her on my camera a few days ago but I wasn't home. This morning I saw her walking down the road and I was able to get her into my car and to safety. No collar or leash. I dropped her off at the City of Poughkeepsie Police station at 8am this morning. (62 Civic center plaza, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601).
