ARE YOU FEEDING THIS CAT? Bocci ran away from the Nelson Rd area in Monroe, NY on 6/13 and has appeared on our security cameras a few times since then. Most recently (as I shared) she has appeared with a brand new collar!! We have tried the Have a heart traps but she's not falling for it (she went into one slightly but heard a noise and ran). If you or someone you know has recently taken in a black cat near the Nelson Rd/Old Dutch Hollow Rd area please contact me! Missing her a lot. She is completely black with a small head and small paws and is around 18 pounds.
