Found a tortie calico girl in Highland, off Route 299 near Lowe's. She's approx 3 years old, not spayed, no micro shop, and has obviously been outside a long time. Regardless, she's super friendly, knows how to use a litter box, and seems to be grateful to be back inside. It seems like she was someone's cat who got away or they abandoned. I desperately want to keep her, but I need a clear conscience.
