Hi, posting for a friend who is not on FB.

MISSING chunky black and white cat, male, fixed, name is Mallow. Missing since Monday Nov 3 from the Upper Meadow Hill area. My friend was watching him and his brother for a family member, and since she has other pets, including 4 dogs, she set Mallow and his brother up in their own room where it was quiet and safe. They would normally hide under a bed or chair but come out to eat.

She has torn her house apart looking for Mallow, has blink cameras outside pointed at her yard, and a friend and I baited a trap and put out 2 trail cameras, but no luck. There have been some reports of potential sightings, but unfortunately none have panned out, and there are a lot of black and white strays in the area unfortunately. Mallow has been outside before, but this is not his home and he's not familiar with the area. She lives less than a mile from Delaware over off Sycamore before the school.

If anyone has spotted a new black and white cat in the area or picked up anything on their Ring cameras, please reach out. He is a much-loved cat and needs to be back with his brother and family. Thank you!
