Hello! I live in the Wappingers Falls town and behind the house, I always see this orange and white cat. She/He looks healthy but sees me with my two cats and watches through the window. Not sure if he's just checking things out or doesn't have a home and it makes me feel sad! Especially because it's growing colder. this part of Wappingers is in the neighborhood by the castle point hospital. And the coldesack behind my house. Briarwood circle is below that also. If anyone has information about this little guy, that'd be great! No collar and is skid-dish.

The picture uploaded is from google to show a similar since I can't get a still photo of the cat.
