Anyone Missing a Dog? This little girl just showed up on my porch about 15 minutes ago. I was able to put a leash on her. She has a pink collar but no tags. The harness she is wearing belongs one of my dogs. She is currently in my home as it's too cold for this beautiful little girl to be outside. Let me know if this is your dog and you must bring proof of that. I will be taking her to the vet to she if she is chipped, hopefully she is and she can get her back home. I am located in Mohegan Lake.
