Hi... I was hoping you could share this post ⍰⍰ Our cat Memo got out this morning (Aug 13th) around 5am and hasn't been back. He is very very skittish and only got out because our other cat managed to rip through a window screen ⍰⍰ He is a little guy only about 8 pounds and is not at all experienced outdoors. We would appreciate any help in hopefully finding him and brining him back home. He has a freckle on his right eye if anyone sees a kitty wandering around. Thank you so so much in advance ??
