Elly jumped from the car window today 8/3 around 9:15 am in Dutchess county on Hurley Rd in Salt Point last seen heading towards North Ave. She had a training collar, her pink collar with name tag and her leash still attached. We have been looking all day and just stopped to collect ourselves and reach out hoping the internet can do it's thing. She's a black lab mix has a white tipped tail and white on her paws. Anxious Lil girl but super sweet.
