Stripe hasn’t came home she went missing yesterday morning and we still have not been able to find her which is not like her at all she is the first to meet you at the door or driveway as soon as you pull in to the house she comes running from where ever she in whether out by the pond or in the house she will come screaming. She is EXTREMELY friendly so if anyone has seen her or maybe picked her up please bring her back home we miss her! She would be around the New Paltz/Esopus area and lives at 15 rounser ln if anyone notices her please contact me at 8457688964
