Andy is a partial feral that my husband and I take care of. We love him dearly and desperately need help finding him. He ALWAYS comes home to his cat condo at night for dinner and gets locked in for the night where he's safe from coyotes and other animals. He has not come home for dinner and has missed several meals. It is very possible he jumped in someone's car, shed, camper or garage since he always liked to do this sort of thing. Please check random places where a cat might hide out ... especially if you're anywhere near Birch Brook Road Cortlandt Manor NY. He's been missing since 10/4.
