This beautiful larger kitty has been hanging around my property (stanfordville- clinton corners area)for about three weeks or more. If you are missing this poor guy, or perhaps could share this to see if someone else is missing him, that would be great. He doesn't seem totally feral ,just scared. I started to feed him and I see he is not tipped. If I can catch him, he will go to the vet and be checked for a chip, neutered if needed. Working to make an outdoor heated house for now.
